What about the Treaty with Mexico.

The rumors of peace and of a treaty have been rife for some days and have excited much attention. Evidently there is a very strong desire among the people of this country for a peace with Mexico, and everything throwing light upon the subject is full of interest.

The best view we can get of the subject and that upon which we must rely is this that Gen Scott, in conjunction with Mr Trist has received a proposition from the Mexican Commissioners proposing a treaty with the Rio Grande for the boundary and the cession of New Mexico and California for three millions of dollars. The treaty with these conditions it is suggested is before the Mexican Congress for approval and ratification to be offered to our government for acceptance. It is believed that the Mexican Congress will approve the treaty. This version of the matter we gather from the Philadelphia Ledger, a paper generally well informed in matters before the cabinet.

The Ledger reflects pretty strongly the views of the President and is out in hot wrath against Gen Scott for having anything to do with such a treaty and denouncing him in all conceivable shapes and wishing him visited with all possible disgrace. The Ledger calls up in the President to throw the treaty into the fire, recall Gen Scott for publishing it and to cashier him without a court martial. This fire and faggot faith Ledger are on the presence that Gen Scott approved of this movement on the part of Mexico and perhaps unveiled at the suggestion of several eminent Whigs of New York, some of the friends of Mr Van Buren and others of Mr Clay.

It is, we think quite possible that a treaty nearly like unto that which the government once authorized Mr Trist to make, has been proposed on the part of Mexico and will be offered to our government. It seems certain now that Mr Polk disposed to take the whole of Mexico in good faith with the desire of prosecuting a democratic and a very unwilling that Gen Scott or any one else should enable Mexico to make an offer of peace. Whether he will throw the treaty into the fire is yet to be seen.

The matter of the treaty has stirred up the seven times heated bile of the administration against Gen Scott and the presses that echo its mandates are out against him in calumny, detraction and wrath. He is charged with a want of proper respect to the Secretary of War and with not consulting as often as he should do with the government. The fact is that Mr Polk has been desirous and determined to supersede, and if possible to disgrace Gen Scott. He intended to do this before ordering him to Mexico but did not quite dare do it then. The purpose was once relinquished and after the brilliant feat of the capture of Vera Cruz by Gen Scott, the President sought out a check at the State department at Washington, N P Trist, a man with strong personal dislike and prejudice to Gen Scott to proceed to Mexico with authority to tell Gen Scott what to make an armistice and when to cease hostilities, and with instructions to Gen Scott to transmit to the government of Mexico sealed communications. That brave old General did not probably conceal the fact that he felt indignant at such treatment, and intimated to the powers at Washington that a recall would be preferred to this. Upon these letters the President is now submitting Gen Scott to suspension of command, court of inquiry and recall. All the President and his minions in their hate and meanness go on. The poisoned chalice will yet be commended to their own lips. Gen Scott has won a name which will be inscribed upon the annals of bravery and military generalship, and which no malice shall ever efface.

Of Mr Trist the New York Express states, that his remaining with the army enabled him to become intimately acquainted with Gen Scott. Personal differences give way under the strong and imperative obligations of public duty and in a short time Mr Trist became the firm friend of the Commander in Chief. Together, before the walls of Mexico, they united to stay the effusion of blood and reclaim warring nations to the paths of peace.

The moment this fact is known at Washington, Mr Trist was abruptly recalled. The pour mate of the administration are no longer vocal with his praise,—but a deep murmur went forth that foreboded him a doomed victim. Hughes in the State Department at Washington, was immediately filled, and the organ of the government announced that he has no authority to make peace. He had co-operated with General Scott to terminate the unnatural war waged by a reckless Executive—he had been untrue to his mission, having followed the letter of his instructions, and not their intent—and to make the vengeance of the government still more manifest it has sought a higher victim in the person of the Commander in chief.

☞ We have in the course of publication in our columns an able and interesting article on the subject of the best mode of cultivated North of the 43d of North latitude. These articles are written by those who are among the most successful farmers of the country. Some of them have been experimenting for a great number of years, and many of them the venerable and widely known Judge Buffum of Orrington, for forty years—[illegible] the result of their experience [illegible] These articles are worth [illegible] the perusal of all [illegible] farmers.

Gen. Taylor for President.

"An honest man is the noblest work of God."

Perhaps there has never been a time since the formation of our government when the people have been so sick of political demagogues, as at the present time. The country is now reaping the bitter fruits from the seeds sown by the demagogues in 1840 and universally throughout the length and breadth of the land men of all parties are hesitating the members and seem determined to elect for their next president an honest soldier and a patriot and one who shall profess other qualifications for the office, than brawling pretensions and mere party claims.

The character of Gen Taylor, character among the masses of the people is the high principle announced by him, that he must not be considered as a candidate for the Presidency, as a strict party man. And why not?

So low have demagogues, steeped in base desire for office and so greedy have been their appetites that pledges and promises by candidates for office have become a byeword and a reproach. The person who is so anxious to promote and lodge himself, to be a party upon the eve of an election is usually ready to abandon them when it shall be for his personal interest so to do.

And besides this, all good citizens are beginning to look with abhorrence upon that Slavish devotion to party as announced by a late distinguished office holder in this State that he would go with his party, if it went to the devil.

An established honesty is, in truth, the best guaranty we can have or the good conduct of any one, in an untried situation and a known enemy will bespeak for one a more confidence than can be gained by letters or speeches, at a critical time, under the bias of strong personal interest.

Like the lamented Harrison Gen Taylor is the magistrate for his love of country, rather than for his devotion for party and it is this which endears him to the people and which will in the end rally around him a support that will ensure his election.

The Presidential question appears to be narrowed down to this alternative. Shall we have another demagogue like Polk, perhaps a worse one or shall we have an honest man one who will honor the country, and not dishonor himself?

The stubborn and straightforward honesty of Gen Taylor is what commends him greatly to the minds of the American people. We have had enough and seen enough of mere trading politicians. Look at Clay—ever ready to promise any thing having already outpromised his competitors whether to catch the popular gale and like the weather cock, veil to every and change at the slightest impulse—the election such a candidate at the present time would seem to demonstrate, that we were in a much fitter state to be annexed to Mexico than Mexico is to be annexed to us. RIO GRANDE.

☞ How Mr Stephens of Georgia one of the ablest Whig members of Congress, having been attacked for voting for Mr Ashmun's amendment declaring the war to have been wrongfully and unconstitutionally commenced by the President has written a most capital letter in reply thereto, which concludes as follows:—

"I am glad of the opportunity offered, by the amendment of Mr Ashmun to record in the most solemn manner the opinion which I have uniformly expressed, both publicly and privately since the existence of the present war that it was unnecessarily and unconstitutionally begun by the President of the United States."

Thos J Myers, of Richmond, Va, has married the Senorita Carmencita Perez of Monterey. It is the Mr Myers who shot Hoyt, after the detection of a passionate love correspondence addressed to him by his wife, Virginia Myers. He it will be remembered, was tried and acquitted of murder, obtained a divorce, and now married a Mexican girl. Mrs Myers resides with her father in Virginia.

☞ The Louisville Journal calls upon General Taylor to make public his views upon the subject of the Mexican war. This call from a journal known to be friendly to him, and having its influence all over the South West, will, no doubt, connected with the known propriety of the thing bring the old General out.

☞ The Democrate Whig general committee of the city of New York on the 1st of February, passed a resolution approving of Hon Henry Clay as the Whig candidate for President by a vote of 56 to 8. A resolution approving of a National Convention and agreeing to abide by its decision, and sustain the choice which may be made by the collective wisdom of the Whig party.

☞ The Belfast Journal states that the house and barn of Capt Robert Treat, at Frankfort Mills, were consumed by fire on the 28th ult.—In the barn a horse, two cows, two hogs a carriage and ten tons of hay were consumed.—Loss $3,000. Insurance $700. The fire took from an open lamp carried into the barn by the owner.

☞ Mr Wilmot of proviso notoriety, has in Congress, successfully introduced an amendment requiring the committee on Ways and Means to introduce a bill to raise five million dollars per annum, by direct taxation during the continuance of the war, and (if we understand the report correctly) until the debt incurred by the war is liquidated.

☞ In the Senate of Ohio, a select committee reported a report against abolishing capital punishment, which was ordered to be printed.

Disinfecting Agent.

Copperas (sulphate of iron), 1 lb dissolved in water, say about four gallons, and poured twice or thrice times in sinks is a complete disinfectant, removing all stagnant odor, and preventing offensive effluvia when it becomes necessary to clean them. The cost is a mere trifle, copperas selling for four or five cents per lb.—The effect is certain. It is recommended in the Albany Cultivator for 1844, and has been used with success.

Judge McLean on the War.

WASHINGTON, Jan 7, 1848.

MY DEAR SIR

To all thinking appearance, the termination of this miserable war with Mexico, is more remote than when the first blow was struck. In my judgment, it was unnecessarily and unconstitutionally commenced, by marching our army into disputed territory in the possession of Mexico. And I think that Congress, who, unquestionably have the power, should put an end to the war, on just and honorable principles.

After agreeing upon the terms on which a treaty of peace should be made, they should call upon the Executive, by resolution, to offer a peace to Mexico upon that basis and during the negotiation hostilities should be suspended. If the President shall refuse to do this, in the military appropriation bills the army should be required to take such positions as shall carry out the views of Congress. These bills the President could not veto and he would be bound by their requirements. This may be done by the House.

I hope Congress will refuse to issue any more Treasury Notes. The notes demanded, in addition to those already in circulation, would flood the country with that description of paper. Such an emission would constitute a Government Bank equally illegal and managed by a party Administration.

We have now fifteen millions of Treasury Notes in circulation, and authority to issue five millions more. I would not increase this circulation a dollar, but reduce it as rapidly as possible. Such a system would be incomparably more dangerous to the public morals and the public liberty, than any other system of banking that could be devised.

To meet any deficiency of the revenue to pay the current expenses of the war, I would authorize loans at our payings not more than six per cent interest and if loans cannot be made at this rate, let the administration resort to a system of taxation which shall cause the people to feel the expense of the war. All wars should be accomplished by a system of direct and internal taxation. No long sheets of ills can show, in addition to the sacrifice of life, what we pay for military glory. This was the policy in the better days of the Republic.

The last war with England was nobly sustained by the people, not only in the field but by the payment of Taxes. And there will sustain every just war in which our country shall be involved. But I ask nothing in saying that an attempt to adopt such a system of taxation would wind up this war in sixty days. And this shows that the war should be put an end to. This may be done by Congress in ninety days, and I pray God that they may do it.

Very truly yours,
JOHN McLEAN

Reduction of Wages.

It has been understood for some time that the manufacturers have been doing a considerable business, and that some mills had stopped working. We observe says the Boston Courier, by a letter published in an exchange paper, that a reduction of wages is to follow. The letter says:

"There was a meeting of the Directors of the Lawrence Suffolk and Tremont Mills at Lowell, yesterday (25th) when it was agreed to notify the operatives of an intended decrease of pay. The Stark Mills at Manchester have already done so, and I presume it will be universal, indeed, it must be so, as the mills generally for the past six months have made nothing, and no present prospect of any relief by increase of price of manufactures, no reduction of raw material."

"The directors of the Stark Mills, on taking account of stock on the 1st of January, found that they had lost during the last six months, upward of $250,000 or more than one twenty fourth part of their capital, which is $1,200,000."

The celebrated Amoskeag company, at Manchester, which purchased its land water power, &c, at a very low rate, and manufactures its own machinery, having been hitherto the most successful company in the country and employing now a capital of $2,500,000, it is reported is unable to make any dividend for the last six months work.

We are sorry to hear this bad news, but it is consolatory to us in one point, as it shows that our steam mills are no worse off, than the most favored water power mills, though the wages in our mills, on most of the labor have been ten per cent higher than the wages in Lowell and Manchester.

We have yet heard of no movement towards reduction of wages here, though our mills for the most part have hardly made enough to pay their work people.

The failure of the large Calico printers and Cotton manufacturers Andrew Robeson & Co at Fall River falls principally on Boston, but as their establishments have been conducted skilfully and prudently, it is thought the loss will not ultimately be heavy, if the property can be moved from sacrifice. The Bank Stock of Robeson & Co are variously stated from one million to two million and a half of dollars. They made provision for paying off the operatives, about 1000 in number, before the works were stopped.—Newburyport Herald.

Expected Disturbances in Italy.

It is announced that the entry of the Austrian troops into Modena and the Duchy of Parma, has created a great degree of exasperation among the Italian population. There has been some rising at Livorno and Florence, and the Government not being sufficiently strong to contain this movement, has been obliged to deliver up the arms which were in the arsenals. Serious events are, therefore, momentarily expected to take place in Italy, and at not the attentive consideration of the great Powers, principally concerning the Duchy of Parma, which by the death of Marie Louisa falls forward all the rights of the family of Gonzaga, Duke of Mantua, and Guastalla, of whom there exists descendants who have retired to England.

The London papers have already published from the Alba of Florence, the proclamations of Prince Alexander de Gonzaga Mantua, and have declared his rights to well founded and acknowledged by the Duchy of Mantua, as possessions of his ancestors. According to the Italian journal, the restoration of this Prince, who received in the dispers of the empire, and adhering frankly to the reforms inaugurated by Pius IX, would be a great blessing to the populations of Parma, Piacenza, &c. They would then progress more surely and more expeditiously towards the policy of Pius IX, which is the policy most suited to the Italian States, than towards that of Austria, whose weight is difficult to bear.

A sanguinary attack was made on the inhabitants of Milan on the night of the 3d, by the soldiers, armed with bayonets and sabres, and a great number killed and wounded. The massacre lasted six hours. Among the killed is Mangiamin, an aged counsellor of state. The city was under the reign of terror—shops and warehouses closed, streets and squares swept by squadrons of dragoons and divisions of infantry.

☞ The Democrat notices our statement, but does not deny its truth, that the President advised Gov Dana to appoint Hon Nathan Clifford to the vacancy in the United States Senate, caused by the death of Mr Fairfield. The Editor of the Democrat seems particularly anxious to know how we obtained our information, and whether the Governor has made a confidant of us or our party. In reply we say that it is about no difference how we obtained our information, so long as it is true. We learned the fact from those who could speak authoritatively. The Editor of the Democrat does not appear specially desirous to contest it, or he would not allow his article by saying as he does "If the report is true, which should the people blame most, the President for giving the advice or the Governor for not following it?" Much this side thrust to Governor Dana who of late seems to have turned his back upon the Democracy of the Western section of the State, to wrestle the lights of the East he have nothing to do.

Dull Boys.

We are not to conclude that those who are at first exceedingly dull, will never make great proficiency. The examples are numerous, of persons who were noticeably so in childhood but who were distinguished in manhood for their great acquirements.

Adam Clarke D D was taught the alphabet with great difficulty. He was very often chastised for his dullness, and it was seriously feared that he would never learn. He was eight years old before he could spell words of three letters, and was distinguished for nothing but rolling large stones. At the age of eight he was placed under a new teacher, who, by the kindness of his manner, and by suitable encouragement, aroused the slumbering energies of his mind, and excited a desire for improvement. It is well known that he became even more distinguished for his extensive and various acquirements than he ever had been for rolling stones.

Isaac Barrow, D D, for two or three years after he commenced going to school, was only noted for quarrelling and rude sports. This seemed to be his ruling passion. His father considered his prospects for respectability as dark, that he often said, if either were to die, he hoped it would be Isaac. But Isaac afterwards became the pride of his father's family, and an honor to his country. He was appointed Master of Trinity College, at which time he King said he had given the office to the best scholar in England.

Balm of Gilead.

The tree known in this country by this appellation, is the populus candicans—a species of the poplar. It is sometimes called the "cotton tree," probably from the great quantity of light, fibrous and cotton like substances which it produces. The tree which produces the balm of gilead, is the Amyris, and is described by botanists as "scarcely more than a shrub."

If you would keep your hands from chapping during the winter, wash them as often as you please, but rub them "bright dry" each time, don't leave a particle of moisture for the cold air to act upon.

A modest young lady, desiring a leg of a chicken at table, said she would take that part which ought to be dressed in pantaloons. A young man opposite immediately called for that part which usually wears the bustle.

The Young Farmer's Song.

I have no sparkling gems, love,
To bind around thy brow—
I cannot bid my heart to thine
In a golden channel flow
And tho' thou ask for these, love,
How bitter were my part,
For the only wealth my pride can boast
Is a true and loving heart.

A true and loving heart, love,
I know 'tis little worth,
For men forget their hearts, as heaven,
Are jewels on his earth
But still tis all I have, love,
And thou dost ask no more,
For having this whate'er any men,
Thou knowest I am not poor.

Thou knowest I am not poor, love,
My hands disdain not toil;—
I fight the daily fight of man,
With the stern rebellious soil
And as I sow I reap, love
My just and equal part,
And though I have not gold or gems,
I've a true and loving heart.

It is perhaps but an act of justice to the proprietors of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for us to say, that our personal experience in the use of this article has impressed us most favorably. One of the proprietors of the Traveller was entirely cured of a severe cough of four months continuance by the use of this Balsam and several of our friends and acquaintances, who have tried the article have found it of great service in relieving them of severe coughs and shortness of breathing, with which they had been afflicted. SCARLET FEVER usually commences with nausea and sickness, great thirst, headache, redness of the eyes &c—In two or three days a pricking sensation is experienced, and an eruption of a fiery redness begins to appear first on the face and arms, and finally a uniform redness covers the whole body.

In cases of Scarlet Fever, Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills should be taken every night on going to bed, such doses as to produce copious evacuations by the bowels. The course, if properly followed up, will in a short time subdue the most violent attack of Scarlet Fever, at the same time the digestion will be improved, and the blood completely purified.

Beware of Counterfeits of all kinds. Some are coated with sugar, others are made to resemble in outward appearance the original medicine. The safest course is to purchase from the regular agents only, one or more of whom may be found in every village and town in the State.

The genuine for sale by DAVID BURBEE, who is the only authorized agent for Bangor.

DISEASES OF THE SKIN

Through the remote or primary causes of skin diseases may be various, as impurity of the blood, Liver complaint, Scrofula, &c &c, yet the immediate cause is always the same, and that is an obstruction in the pores of the skin, by which the perspiration, in its passage from the body, is arrested and confined in and under the skin causing an intolerable itch or an eruption of Pimples, Pustules, Ringworms, Tetter, Salt Rheum &c &c.

For all these affections Jayne's Alterative has been found an invaluable remedy, as it removes both the primary as well as the immediate causes—purifying the Blood, curing the Liver Complaint and effectually eradicating Scrofula from the system, while at the same time it frees the pores of their obstructing matters, and heals the diseased surface.

☞ THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON

The following is from the Rev John R. Corney Jr

Trenton, N J, Oct 31st, 1846.

Dr Jayne—Dear Sir—I am extremely happy in being able to inform you that I have entirely recovered my health, from using your Expectorant. I have suffered with a severe cough pain in my breast, and great prostration of strength for the last eighteen months, so that I was compelled to relinquish my charge of a church which I held in this place. I had resorted to a great many different prescriptions as well as the attendance of several respectable physicians, but they did not appear to reach my case. I resorted to your Expectorant through persuasion of Brother Parker Wood, and the use of three bottles has entirely cured me.

Believing it to be an act of justice due to yourself, as well as to those similarly afflicted, induces me to write this, and which you are at liberty to use as you think proper. Respectfully yours

JOHN R. CORNEY, Jr

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

In the Senate, Mr Atchison was appointed President pro tem of the Senate.

Mr Hunter reported a bill to pay Mr Crutchett $2,000 for lighting the capitol and the public grounds with gas. Passed.

Mr Johnson of Louisiana, presented resolutions from the Louisiana Legislature, on the subject of donations of land to Volunteers, also in favor of a bill making compensation for French spoliations and asking a grant for school lands.

Mr Jefferson Davis, from the Military Committee, reported a bill to extend the provisions of the existing pension laws to enlist men of the ordnance corps. Read three times and passed.

Mr Ashley, from the Judiciary Committee reported a bill providing for the purchase and distribution of the decisions of the Supreme Court among the several States and Territories.

Mr Westcott, from the Committee on Claims, reported a resolution referring the case of A H Frazier and Albert Baker, relative to a legal outrage on a vessel, their property, to the Secretary of State.

The Ten Regiments bill coming up in order, Mr Bell addressed the Senate in opposition.

In the House, the early part of the session was taken up in personal explanations, after which the resolution referring the President's annual message to appropriate Committees was taken up.

Mr Cobb, of Georgia, having the floor, yielded it to Mr Vinton, who said that he had on Saturday given notice that he would call up the Loan Bill to-day, as it was very important that it should be acted upon immediately.

He objected to taking the floor at this time, was to express a hope that the debate on the President's Annual Message would be concluded to-day or early to morrow. If not, he would to-morrow move the previous question on the resolution now pending.

Mr Cobb said that members of his side were ready to close the debate yesterday, had not the remarks of the gentleman from Vermont required an answer. He then proceeded with his speech.

In conclusion Mr Cobb moved a amendment to the amendment by inserting the words "and others after the word personal.

Mr Stevens replied to Mr Cobb, and Mr Brown, of Penn replied to Mr Stevens.

☞ There was a great snow storm on Saturday, and yesterday there was a regular, old fashioned, first-rate blustering, blow-out, the first for the winter and first rate of the kind for any winter. Our private opinion is, that there is now a plenty of snow.

☞ The Portland Umpire has hoisted the name of Gen Franklin Pierce as its candidate for Vice President to run with General Taylor.

☞ During 1847 there were 1733 more arrivals of shipping in Boston than New York.

☞ Senator John Davis has recovered from his illness, and made his appearance in the Senate.

Marine Disaster.

The British brig Sarah, Capt. Cann, of Yarmouth, N S which sailed on Wednesday from this port for Yarmouth, N S., missteered in the afternoon, and went ashore on the Gurnet and bilged. The officers and crew were taken off by the schooner Brunswick, from Brunswick, Me, and brought up to this city. The Sarah cleared in Boston.—Boston Mail.

Besides the new States to be carved out of Mexico, the Committee on Territories will doubtless, propose four new territorial governments within our present limits, Nebraska, west of Missouri, Dakia, north of Wisconsin, Minnesota, west of the same, and another territory running up to the extreme northwestern boundary.

DR. CUMMINGS'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and Dock.

THE articles above named are the principal ingredients of this medicine. With these other vegetable origin are combined designed to render them more active, and consequently more immediately effective.

The Dock, or rather a species of it now ranks as a medicinal plant, second to no one of the vegetable kingdom. With the aid of a distinguished chemist whom the proprietor has consulted in the preparation of the compound he has succeeded in overcoming the difficulty of preserving the extract of the root for any considerable length of time.

For many years the proprietor has tested in his practice the efficacy of the principal substances of the compound and is perfectly satisfied that they possess all the properties which have been ascribed to them. Recently he discovered the edge of testing them, which has resulted in the production of the compound. In this the ingredients are found to act in harmony and to lose none of the qualities which they separately possess.

A larger portion of Sarsaparilla is soluble than has generally been supposed. The extract must not be relied on, and least liable to decomposition is procured by subjecting the root to the action of the menstrua usually employed in extracting its virtues, for a long time without heat or any other accelerating agent. None is permitted to be used in the compound, that has not been obtained by this process and that has been less than a year in preparation.

The Compound is recommended for Scrofula Erysipelas, Ulcerous affections, Fleshers and Mercurial diseases. Also for the many troublesome diseases arising from sedentary employments, occupations of a harassing and fatiguing nature, intense application, exposures to extremes of heat and cold, overtasking the physical powers and other abuses of the constitution among which are Neuralgia, Piles, Affection of the Liver, Bilious Complaints and Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

In diseases of warm climates, with which the proprietor become familiar in his practice in Havana, some years since the compound will prove particularly efficacious, both as a remedy and a preventative.

This medicine has been for some time in use in this city, where the proprietor has passed nearly half a century of his professional life. It was extensively prescribed by him while in practice, and it is believed to be in favor with his medical brethren in general to whom he is known.

Prepared only by Dr Stephen Cummings and sold at wholesale and retail by Joshua Hargrave, No 143 Middle street, and Edward Mason, No 153 Middle street—only agents for Portland.

Sold in Bangor by G W LADD and JOSEPH R INGRAHAM.
